RealGifts is a technology company delivering an award-winning social gifting platform that is defining social commerce. RealGifts takes virtual gifting to the next level by coupling a real gift along with a virtual gift, enabling users to send real, tangible gifts to their friends without needing their address. Combining virtual gifting and eCommerce, RealGifts provides a whole new way for social networks to monetize.

RealGifts Team with Mark Zuckerberg (Facebook's Founder and CEO)

RealGifts partners with top brands to offer gifts ranging from movie tickets to flowers, gift baskets, baked goods, chocolates, novelties, and more. RealGifts powers Real Gifts in the Facebook Gift Shop and is expanding its vendor and distribution partner network.

RealGifts is a recipient of the prestigious Facebook fbFund competition, sponsored by Facebook, Founders Fund, and Accel Partners. In addition to being vetted and recognized by industry titans, RealGifts is being supported by Facebook advisors and has received invaluable exposure and industry recognition.

To place orders, simply click the red gift box at the top of your Facebook friend's Wall and enter the Real Gifts section of the Facebook Gift Shop.

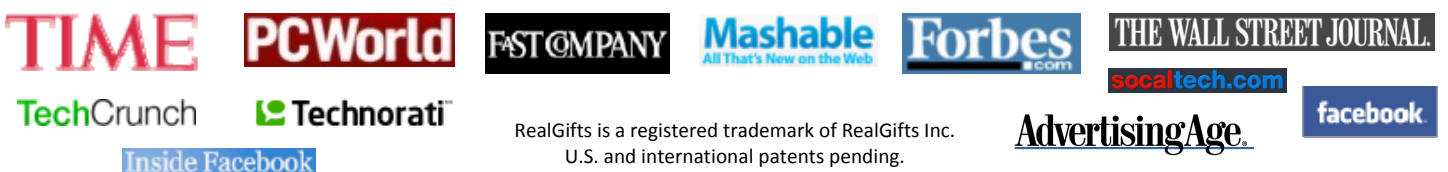

"The whole [transaction] took me about 30 seconds. No shopping cart, no checkout. I didn't even need to input her shipping address ..."

Dan Fletcher, TIME Magazine

The Gift Shop is also linked with birthday and anniversary reminders on the Facebook home page, making RealGifts the most convenient way to send gifts and celebrate every occasion with friends on Facebook.
